

RULES & REGULATIONS

THE COMPETITION

The competition program should always be made in such a manner to provide for at least 8 hours of rest for the dancers between the festival days. It is not allowable to have competition including awards presentation after midnight, neither to have riser presentations or awards presentations after 10.30 PM.

As a general rule, the competition are commenced mostly with riser categories to avoid the minor-aged dancers' late presentations.

The awards ceremony will be organized after each day of competition.

1. SEQUENCE OF CATEGORIES

The program of the festival (sequence of the categories) should always be composed in such a manner to avoid the same dancer(s) to compete in different categories again within 5 minutes. Should this happen, an extraordinary break must be ordered to provide for enough time of clothes changing and physical and mental preparation. The sequence of categories should always be previously published to all participants by E-mail, handing over in printed form during the registration and hanging out on the venue of competition. The language of all communications is English on the international competitions. Any desired changes or remarks must be done to the organizers latest two days before the competition. On the place of the competition, only cancellations are possible.

2. PRESENTATION OF AWARDS

The Speaker should always properly inform the audience and the participants about the awards presentations. All the participants should be ready for awards presentation and should properly cooperate to provide for a continuous awards presentation and the soonest completion of the ceremony. The organizers should take care to have enough competition office assistants to support the proceeding. The Speaker and the Festival Director, helped by the Office Head should take care about the quick and considerate presentation of awards.

2. PRINCIPLES OF ADJUDICATION

The FDF adjudication system is an informatic system. Besides, there will be also possible to make a short written note made about each dance in dance disciplines (not mandatory).

Each items of those above are valued by each jury member on a scale ranging from 0 to 10. Each dance is judged always by at least three judges on the basis of scoring criteria.

The jury members have the option, but not the obligation to make a brief written note about each dance disciplines judged.

The competition results are calculated automatically by a computer program.

There are no sheets arbitration. All notes and comments (if they exist) are found in your account once every school dance scene was assessed.

Competition results are presented immediately after the award ceremony in the account created for each school.

STAGE

- a) Stage with a min 8 x 10 m dance floor, professional lightning, professional sound system, LED Video Screens, backdrop, and side wings. (Stage height and size may vary due to venue restrictions.)

MUSIC

- a) The school or the organization is responsible for their own music (selection, technical condition and preparation). “Explicit lyrics” (insulting, racist and sexually offensive lyrics) are prohibited. Disregarding these rules leads to deduction from scoring.
- b) Music must be uploaded via the Registration portal when registering a dance. Uploaded music should be in a mp3 format and it represents one song. Deadline for music upload is 7 days prior the competition start. In case the music is not uploaded, the registered dancers will not be able to perform
- c) Delays and interruptions caused by not following these regulations will result in a deduction of 5 points from the dance number’s score.

GENERAL RULES

1. ORGANIZATIONAL MATTERS

- a) By registering for a FDF competition, the competitors accept the official rules of FDF
- b) The competition committee may make inquiries, either before or after dance numbers, if the jury has doubts about the accuracy of the dancers’ age. The dances must be able to prove their age.
- c) No signs or assistance from the trainer/guardian during the performance.
- d) The schools/organizations are responsible for the accident risks of their participants.

- e) 10 points may be deducted for the following:
 - a. 5 Sec. over or under the time limit
 - b. For all violations of the FDF's rules.
- f) Unsportsmanlike and disruptive behavior during the event may disqualify the competitor, and, in extreme cases, the school/organization may be removed from the competition.
- g) Trainers, as well as guardians and spectators, can be removed from the competition for unsportsmanlike behavior or for disrupting others.
- h) Individual modifications are only possible with prior approval by the competition director.

2. ARTISTIC MATTERS

- a) Definition „Acrobatic“: The body does not touch the ground (Salto, Flick Flack) excluding jumps and lifts.
- b) Acrobatic and gymnastic arches, wheels, etc. should only be used when they are involved directly in the dance and must not dominate the number.
- c) The competition line-up must be observed. Should a costume-change break be necessary, the competition director must be informed directly before the final round, and as soon as the line-up is known.
- d) Competitors may take the stage after the number is called and proceed to their starting position. Competitors leave the stage upon conclusion of the number and the final bow.
- e) All performances, music, costumes, and styles are permitted, as long as they are not indecent or offensive.
- f) The use of props is allowed, as long as the props are used directly in the dance and are brought on and off stage by the dancers.
- g) Individual lighting effects, such as open fire or fire-works, are prohibited.
- h) Creativity, originality of ideas and movements, surprise effects, and affective use of the stage are important elements in all disciplines.

3. PHOTOS, CELLULAR AND VIDEOTAPING

- a) Flash photography is strictly prohibited during competition. It's possible with express FDF authorization.
- b) Cellular phones should be turned to the off or vibrate mode while seated in the house section of the theatre/ballroom during competition. Cellular phone use should be limited to the lobby area of the venue.
- c) Videotaping by individuals at FDF competition is prohibited. Violations will result in disqualification action of the registered organization/dancer. This rule will be strictly enforced to protect the integrity of individual choreography.

4. DISCLAIMERS

- a) Any dancer competing in a dance competition takes certain incumbent risks. These include, but are not limited to, sprains, pulled muscles and broken bones. Participation in this competition indicates acceptance of such risks by performers. Therefore, FDF assume no responsibility for personal injury or property loss.
- b) By entering a FDF competition and FDF workshop, participants (i.e. dancers, teachers, choreographers) give their permission to FDF to use their photographs, videos and/or likeness in any FDF promotional effort without compensation.
- c) FDF do not discriminate, or tolerate discrimination of any kind. We believe every individual should have an equal opportunity to compete within the framework of our rules and guidelines.
